Fourth Annual Wilmington Boat Show Only One Month Away

Greenville, SC (August 8, 2019) JBM & Associates, producers of the Wilmington Boat Show, are pleased to announce the 2019 show dates, September 6-8, in downtown Wilmington.

The show, in its fourth year is Presented by Yamaha Motor Corporation and features hundreds of beautiful new boats on sale, more than a hundred vendors selling products and services, fishing clinics, live music, food trucks and the Carolina Dock Dogs competition. The show takes place downtown at the Wilmington Convention Center and Port City Marina with special events at Battleship Park. One of the show's attractions include a free ferry ride between the park and the marina. Visitors can park either downtown or at Battleship Park.

"Wilmington is the perfect location on the east coast for a major in-water boat show. With the tremendous amount of boaters in North Carolina alone and no other in-water show, this show features more than 75 different makes and models to an audience of thousands of attendees. We are excited about the future of this show," said JBM President and owner Jacqui Bomar.
